

Macon 5c four-line postmaster provisional tied by 11 Nov (1861) Macon postmark on a college corner card cover of Wesleyan Female College. This is one of four similar provisional corner card covers addressed to Mrs. James Shackelford in Cedar Springs, Georgia. There are two types of this provisional. One has a period after "OFFICE" and the second a comma. The provisional on this cover is the "period" variety. Dangerous forgeries of both varieties exist.

