

Button Gwinnett Stamp News

January 2006

JANUARY JOINT MEETING

The Cobb club will be hosting the next joint meeting at their meeting place, the Jewish Towers, on Howell Mill Rd. on SUNDAY, JAN 8TH at 1:30 p.m. This is a chance to see all your friends from the other clubs and brag about that elusive philatelic item that Santa brought you over the holidays. Who knows? They may fall for your story so much that they want you to bring that item to the next meeting so they can admire it. See the map in this newsletter for directions to their meeting place. There is always a great auction at these meetings. What a great way to start off the New Year. WE WILL HAVE A REGULAR CLUB MEETING IN JANUARY ALSO.

REGULAR JANUARY CLUB MEETING

The club voted to have a regular meeting in Lilburn in January in addition to the joint meeting at the Cobb Club. The regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 18th at 7:00 p.m. We will have a short meeting devoted to the upcoming year and then have one of our auctions. If someone gave you a scarce stamp for Christmas and you already had a superb copy of it, bring it to the auction and go home with some cash. In the meantime be thinking of two things:

- 1) What do I want from my stamp club in 2006 and what activities do I want to see at the meetings?
- 2) What can I do for the club to make it a better and more fun experience for the rest of the membership?

DECEMBER PARTY

Our December party was held at the home of Rick Weiman. We want to thank Rick and his wife for putting on such a wonderful party. First there was a nice social hour followed by a meal consisting of the food brought by everyone present. As usual, everyone brought enough to feed four so we had to eat as if we were four people. The evening ended up with a Yankee swap meet. The swap meet has grown to be a fixture at our Christmas parties and they are always fun to participate in or just to watch.

DUES TIME AGAIN

It seems like only a year ago that I was writing these very same words. Dues are due. There are a couple of ways to pay your dues. You can bring them to the club meeting and pay them there (the preferred method) or you can mail your dues to the following address:

Treasurer
Button Gwinnett Stamp Club
P.O. Box 2066
Lilburn, Ga. 30048

Either way, get your dues to us.

FUTURE ACTIVITIES

Jan. 8,2006	1:30 p.m. Joint Meeting
Jan. 18,2006	7:00 p.m. Auction
Feb. 15,2006	7:00 p.m. TBA

Meetings to be held at Lilburn City Hall
Unless otherwise stated in this newsletter.

Directions to the Cobb joint meeting:

If taking I-75 north, exit to Northside Parkway. Go right on Northside and then take another right on Howell Mill Rd. Go up the hill and the Jewish Towers are on the right. Find a parking place and enter the building at the center of the L.

If taking I-75 south, exit onto West Paces Ferry Rd. Go left over I-75 and turn right onto Northside Parkway and then right again onto Howell Mill Rd. Go up the hill and Jewish Towers is on the right. See you there.