

Austria - Issue of 1850.

From Crajowa, Wallachia (Romania), 23 December 1854 to Vienna. Posted at the Austrian field post office, which had opened earlier that month. While not joining the allies against Russia in the Crimean War, Austria had moved troops into Moldavia and Wallachia, up to the Russian frontier. 15 kreuzer was the single letter rate for civilian mail posted through the military post office.