POSTAL HISTORY JOURNAL awards

at Canada’s 7th National Philatelic Literature Exhibition, Toronto, October 14-16, 2005

For the 2004 issues:

A GOLD medal “An exceptional postal history journal with high quality in-depth research articles”

And

A PRIX D’HONNEUR “For the editors’ work in broadening the scope of postal history coverage”

Cover from a Jew interned in Switzerland to a detainee held on the island of Mauritius – with the distinctive triangular violet censorship arrival handstamp.

A rare local cover dated March 7, 1945, from Siegried Klatzko, a patient in the Detainees Convalescent Home at Forest Side on the Island, to his daughter Sara Klatzko in the Detainee Camp itself.

This is the cover that led the author to research this subject – traveling to St. Helena and delving in the records there.

1863 postbox on St. Helena.
