For more information on each item, please see: www.slovakiarestaurant.com Several of us have dined there before along with many show dealers. We agree that it is great value for the money at the best restaurant in Marietta. (...and remember to pronounce that May' retta).

If more than 30 will attend, we will need to know well in advance to book a larger room. I have to give the restaurant the final head count with choice of entree no later than Tuesday, 19-September.

If you plan on attending, send a check for $40 per person with choice of entree to me at the following address:
